Some notes regarding the choice of the words in this puzzle. (In the following, the first occurrence of the words that appear in the maze on page 1, is highlighted in bold style.)

The book of Daniel in the Old Testament contains many prophecies. The prophet Daniel was one of the captives who were taken from the land of Israel to Babylon, in the days of king Nebuchadnezzar. That book mentions even other Israelites, among them Azariah, Hananiah and Misael whose names the Babylonians or Chaldeans changed to Abednego, Shadrach and Meshach. Daniel was called Belshazzar (not to be confused with Nebuchadnezzar's grandson whose name was Belshazzar).

Daniel 1:17 tells us that the prophet "had understanding in all visions and dreams". At one time, the king Nebuchadnezzar had in a dream seen a great image, whose head was of gold, breast and arms of silver, belly and thighs of brass (bronze), legs of iron and feet a mix of iron and clay. A stone hit that image and broke it to pieces. The prophet Daniel interpreted that dream to the king. Because of this, the king made Daniel "the ruler over the whole province of Babylon, and chief of the governors over all the wise men of Babylon". In another dream, Nebuchadnezzar saw a huge tree (Daniel 4). In that dream, a "watcher and a holy one" came down from Heaven and had that tree cut down. Daniel interpreted even that dream.

Daniel 3 records an event when Azariah, Hananiah and Misael were thrown into a burning furnace. God saved them, so that they came out of the fire, unharmed.

Daniel 5 records that when Nebuchadnezzar's grandson Belshazzar became the ruler, he was proud and purposely used at a feast vessels (bowls, or something similar) which had belonged to the temple in Jerusalem. At that time, there appeared a writing on a wall, with the words "mene, mene, tekel, upharsin". Daniel interpreted that dream. Because of this, Belshazzar declared that Daniel was to be made "the third ruler in the kingdom". Daniel told Belshazzar that the word mene meant, "God has numbered your kingdom, and finished it". Tekel meant "you have been weighed in the balances, and found wanting", and upharsin (plural of peres) "your kingdom has been divided, and given to the Medes and Persians". Belshazzar was killed that same night, and the Median ruler Darius took over Babylon. (Daniel 9:1 calls him "Darius the son of Ahasuerus, of Median descent, who was made king over the kingdom of the Chaldeans".)

Darius "set over the kingdom 120 princes", and over them "three presidents, of whom Daniel was first". Some of those other rulers made plans for the purpose of getting rid of Daniel. That matter is recorded in Daniel 6. A part of the story is that as a result of those people's scheming, Daniel was thrown into a pit with lions. God saved him. After that, the king fed the lions with Daniel's enemies.

Daniel 8 records that when Daniel was in a palace in Shushan, he saw a vision with symbolic beasts (animals). In that vision, Daniel was by the river Ulai.

Daniel 9 records how a messenger from God, called Gabriel, told Daniel about certain things, including a note that from the time when an order was given to rebuild Jerusalem, to the coming of "the Messiah the Prince" (the Anointed ruler, that is, Jesus), was to be "seven weeks and sixty-two weeks" (apparently counted in the "a day for a year" manner). Even seventy weeks are mentioned. Daniel 7 contains in a way similar prophecy which talks about "time and times and the dividing of time" (apparently the same as 3½ years = 1260 days, counted as years). Daniel 7 mentions also a time of judgment.

Daniel 10 records an event when the prophet was by the river Hiddekel, and saw in a vision a mighty being who told him about things to come. That being mentioned that he had been helped by "Michael, one of the chief princes". Daniel 13 mentions an "abomination" that makes "desolate"; there are many kinds of interpretations as to what that might have meant and referred to.

At one time, even the ruler "Cyrus the Persian" was in control over Babylon (Daniel 1:21, 6:28, 10:1).
