

A word-search puzzle from the Bible Pages.

Theme: Women of the Bible.

On the following pages you will find two word-search puzzles where the words consist of names of women who are mentioned in the Bible. The number of words is 149, and they have been divided between two puzzles, one with 73 words and the other with 76. The division is purely alphabetical. The spelling basically follows that which is used in the 1769 edition of king James' bible.

The words are printed across, or up or down, or diagonally, backwards or forwards, but always in a straight line, with no letters skipped. Each letter may form a part of more than one word. All letters do not belong to words, and there is no "hidden message".

These two puzzles together contain all names of female persons that this author could find in the Bible, through a shorter search. Some names might be missing. Please note that it is not always clear whether a name refers to a man or a woman, and that some names could be used of both. Further: In some bible-passages, female names are used of something else than literal women; all such names are not included here. Sometimes, the same person could have two different names or then their names have different spellings; these puzzles contain certain examples of that. Please note that many women of the Bible are not mentioned by name, and that there are many women with the same name. In short: These two puzzles are not a study of the number of women mentioned in the Scriptures.
